

BOARD IN DOUBT ABOUT COUPONS

Bothwell & McConaughy Want to Clip Them, But Matter Goes Over.

TEACHERS' SALARIES RAISED

Allowance Also Made Architect Titmer For Services In Connection With New High School.

By virtue of what fact or privilege G. B. Bothwell and R. E. McConaughy should be permitted to clip the coupons on the 40 $1,000 school bonds to be turned over to them as the purchase price for the new high school site, the board of education is ignorant, inasmuch as the bonds date from July 1, 1910, and the deed for the site in question will not be turned over to the board before the first of the year.

The amount of the interest on the bonds for the first six months of their tenure.
At a meeting of the board held last evening, a communication was read from Bothwell and McConaughy, in which they strenuously protested the proposal of the board to deprive them of the amount. Since the board as a whole could find no reason why they should be allowed the amount, the matter was turned over to the committee on buildings and grounds.

The communication applied the board of the necessity of widening Thirteenth East street, where the school site abuts on that street. It was known that the intention of Bothwell and McConaughy had been to deal with the board from the site to the city, for the purpose of widening the street, and the board decided to do the same.

Some objection arose to the proposition of allowing the interest on the bonds for each session of the state teachers' association attended during the convention to be held in Salt Lake Dec. 22-23, on the grounds that it is understood that the meeting is for the benefit of the teachers and they should receive their compensation in intellectual advancement.
The board was held forth by Supt. D. H. Christensen, that the teachers will be at considerable expense in entertaining teachers from other sections of the state, in view of which fact he believed it no more than just that they receive some material compensation. It was finally voted to allow the city teachers not to exceed $5 for attendance upon these meetings.

The committee on teachers' and school work recommended that the salary of Vice Principal L. M. Gillman of the high school be increased to $2,000 a year, and this recommendation was adopted in the form of a resolution by the board. Other increases recommended and adopted were as follows: Caroline Paine, $1,000; Mary Montgomery, $1,000; W. S. Bayliss, $900; Mary Mayne, $1,600; Clara E. Elberick, $1,600; Rose Thomas, Eva Melville, Kate O'Rourke and Fay Martin were endorsed as additional teachers. While Henrick Wallace, Anna McIntyre, Ora Dunford, Annie Nordvall and Josephine Beebe were released from their contracts, such release to take effect Dec.
22.

An allowance of $1,000 was made to W. B. Titmer, a St. Louis architect, for his services in planning the architects' contest, and his high school architect is to be chosen. In addition to this, Mr. Titmer's traveling expenses were allowed.

The recommendation of the building and grounds committee that Lynch and Cannon's bid of $2,938 for the installation of a septic tank to connect with the Whitaker school sewer, be accepted, was adopted.

An overdraft for $74,622 was shown in the treasurer's statement. Payroll amounting to $80,000 and bills to that amount of $18,000 were allowed.

GARRICK CURTAIN FAILED TO RISE

Regrettable Falling Out Between Ingersoll and the House Management.

When the time for the curtain to rise at the Garrick last night arrived, Mr. William Ingersoll, the leading actor, was not on hand; the expectant audience was entertained for half an hour by the orchestra and then graciously dismissed by the manager, Mr. Emmerson.
With the single announcement that Mr. Ingersoll could not be found, thereby hangs a story. When seen this morning at the Stuffer apartments Mr. Ingersoll gave the following explanation concerning his non-appearance:

"As you probably know I am not only the leading actor of the Ingersoll Stock company, but a part proprietor as well. I was instrumental in having Mr. Emmerson made manager and gave him full sway over the theater. Common courtesy, however, should have made him treat me with some deference; so when an order came from him that I must not receive visit-ers in my dressing room as had been my custom, I resented it.
"On Sunday I telephoned to Mr. Emmerson warning him that unless he rescinded his order I would not appear on Monday night and I again warned him on Tuesday. His only reply was:
'All right, I guess you won't appear.' I waited in my rooms here Tuesday night until 8:30 and a word came from the theater. I concluded that they had gone on without me; so my wife and I attended the Beauty Spot at the invitation of Mr. Con- I have nothing definite to say concerning my plans for the future; but I want to impress it upon your mind that I did not tell Mr. Emmerson that I would not be on hand unless he rescinded his order and that consequently it was his duty to see that the public be not disappointed."

Mr. J. A. Rogers, the owner of the Garrick, when seen this morning, said:
"Mr. Ingersoll telephoned to me yesterday saying that he would not appear unless Mr. Emmerson rescinded his order concerning his receiving guests in the dressing room, but I merely referred him to Mr. Emmerson, and knew nothing of last night's occurrence until this morning. All of the members of the company have consented to remain at the Garrick and we will open up next week as usual.
Telegraph wires are busy today and we expect to have a new leading man before night."

Mr. Emmerson gave his version of the affair as follows:
"I insisted that the discipline of the company could not be maintained unless Mr. Ingersoll be denied the privilege of receiving visitors in his dressing room; so I gave an order to that effect. I do not want to insinuate that Mr. Ingersoll entertained any one in his dressing room except his friends about town. He gave me ample evidence of his intention not to attend last night's performance and I could not reach him by phone at his apartments. At 8:30 I called at the Stuffer apartments but the maid told me that Mr. and Mrs.
Ingersoll had been out for some time.
I afterward learned that they were at the Colonial.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

A PURE, WHOLESOME, RELIABLE CREAM OF TARTAR BAKING POWDER

Cream of tartar is derived from grapes. It is used in Dr.
Price's Baking Powder in the exact form and composition in which it occurs in that luscious, healthful fruit. The healthfulness of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is beyond question.

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATES

In every one of fifty-two different brands of alum and alum-phosphate baking powders recently officially analyzed Sulphuric Acid was reported in large quantities, frequently greater than twenty-five per cent. of the whole weight of the baking powder!

Chemical tests show that a portion of the alum from alum baking powder remains as such and unaltered in the bread. Read the Label

by phone at his apartments. At 8:30
I called at the Stuffer apartments but
the maid told me that Mr. and Mrs.
Ingersoll had been out for some time.
I afterward learned that they were at
the Colonial.

"We have a dozen or more telegrams out today to New York and other places, and before night expect to have a leading man engaged to commence next week. We shall continue fast as we should have done had Mr.
Ingersoll remained with us."

MINSTREL SHOW IS STRIKING SUCCESS

Local Blackface Artists Hold Boards
At Shubert Under Auspices Of B'Nai B'Rith.

The minstrel show, given under the auspices of the Independent Order of B'Nai B'Rith, at the Shubert theater last night, was a success in every way. All the numbers were received with applause, and the audience was kept in a continual uproar from the start to the finish.
Prof. Charles Kent was the interloper, and the jokes sprung by the end men were new and original. "Angel Eyes," by Alex. S. Campbell; "I Love You Still," by Charles Kent; "Garden of Roses," by Martha Colby; and "Garden of Dreams," by Sam Rosenblatt, were among the vocal numbers which were exceptionally well rendered.

Several pleasing selections were rendered by the I. O. E. E. quartet, composed of Henry Taylor, Emanuel Smith, Charles Kent and Samuel Haomi. Another decided hit was the "Two Counts," Leavitt and Taylor. Harry Sheridan, Joseph Herman Siegel, Abe Wolf, Milton D. Joseph and Miss Emma Stewart, rendered a pleasing selection entitled, "Musical Evening in Conville." In this skit Harry Joseph proved his versatility on the piano.

Lon Marcus and Ezra K. Barr in "Fun and Music" were well received as was

TRY TO GET MONEY BACK.

Members of Incomplete "Suit Clubs" To Resort to Legal Measures.

An effort to secure redress and a portion of the money back which they subscribed in a "suit club" is being made by a number of parties who attached their names to a contract for suits on the installment plan conducted by a party by the name of Woolf in the Boston block. It will be remembered that by order of the county attorney all "suit clubs" were put out of business on the ground that they constituted nothing more nor less than a lottery, thus leaving a number of "clubs" in a state of incompleteness.

Simon R. Johnson, an employee of the Dinwoody Furniture company, is one of those "stung," and at a meeting with F. W. Williams, Spence Kirk, and Messrs. Kinnerley and McKean, all employees of the Dinwoody company, it was decided to institute legal proceedings to recover the amount of money they contributed to the incomplete "suit club." Mr. Johnson said this morning that another meeting of the "club" members, of whom there are between 200 and 300, would be held soon, when a combined effort would be made to get some of their money back. It is said that Woolf claims he was prevented from fulfilling his contract through no fault on his part, but Johnson says he has offered no portion of the money back to the subscribers. Mr. Johnson is now engaged in getting in touch with the balance of the members of the "suit club," with the idea of securing the united action of all interested.

Jones, Who Telephoned Alarm to Fire Dept., Says Operator Caused Mistake.

That he was not responsible for the mistake in sending the alarm of fire to the department yesterday morning when the Alvord greengrocers were alarmed, but that the operator at the fire alarm office made the mistake, was the declaration of Jones, "the electrical man," to The News today.
He says that he called central in the usual manner, asking for No. 15, and telling her that there was a fire at the Alvord greengrocers. He says, central called in on the line with the familiar, "I am ringing them." Then the operator at the fire headquarters was told that the fire was at Fourth East and Eleventh South street.
A few moments later, Jones says, the operator at the fire alarm office called him and inquired if he had said Eleventh East and Fourth South. Jones corrected the operator's mistake, he says, and he declares that he has ample evidence of having turned in the alarm correctly.

Reason
Ultimately Rules!

Be it known that "caffeine"—the drug in coffee—is a poison that works directly on nerves, stomach and heart.

It is hardly as quick in destruction as whiskey, but in time, quite as certain.

Our duty ends with telling the facts. Individuals are, of course, free to follow their own inclination.
They can continue the drug and pay the cost in physical suffering or quit and return to comfortable health, provided the disease (stomach, bowels, kidneys, nerves or heart) has not become chronic.

It is our work to narrate the facts and offer an easy way to slip off the coffee habit and not feel it.

If a good, hot, well-made cup of Postum is served instead of the coffee, it furnishes the deep seal brown beverage which turns to a rich golden brown when cream is added and all the comfort of the morning cup is there, with this increased and never-to-be-forgotten advantage.

The drug-poison and its effect on stomach, nerves, bowels and heart is gone. In its place day by day can be plainly seen the effects of the change. The killing work of the drug has been stopped. Nature begins to repair, and is helped tremendously by supplying the needed elements Dame Nature requires to do her rebuilding.

These elements are in Postum. It is not necessary to take anyone's word for it. Try it yourself. Quit the coffee 10c day. Use Postum (well made according to directions on package). Then at the end of the ten days take account of your gain toward health. It shows well (and it will) keep on the good comfortable road.

There's no joy on earth equal to the joy (24 hours in the day) of perfect health. If you have been a coffee victim, you'll appreciate it. Besides, health gives you power to make money, and money rightly used brings comfort.

Wake Up!
